EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Re: Bankruptcy Engagement Letter

The undersigned(s), EBONY S. BROWN, hereby retains and employs GERALD BAUER JR., attorney at law, to represent the undersigned(s) in a case to be initiated under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition to counseling the undersigned as to what type of bankruptcy may be appropriate and answering any questions relating to the bankruptcy the undersigned may have, the legal services to be rendered are as follows: (1) preparation and filing of a Petition, Statement of Financial Affairs, Statement of Intention; Means Test Statement; and Schedules; (2) providing the trustee with any sort of reasonable documents requested including, but not limited to, pay advices and tax returns for the undersigned(s); (3) attendance at no more than two meetings of creditors, if more than one is necessary, in the bankruptcy case; (4) negotiation of any pleadings required to reaffirm the undersigned's personal obligation to pay any debt or lease; and (5) handle communications with creditors during the pendency of the undersigned's case regarding claims the creditors may have against the undersigned(s) (but not preparing or filing any objections to claims unless the undersigned(s) and I agree to that separately). Please note the foregoing are the only services to be rendered by GERALD BAUER JR. for the undersigned with regard to his bankruptcy matter.

In consideration of the legal services to be rendered to the undersigned(s) by GERALD BAUER JR., the undersigned(s) agrees to pay to GERALD BAUER JR. on or before 02/26/2015 or the date a petition is filed on behalf of the undersigned(s) which initiates a case under the Bankruptcy Code, whichever is sooner, the sum of $ ONE THOUSAND

The undersigned has discussed with Attorney restrictions on compensation set out in the Bankruptcy Code and understands that representation which occurs after the commencement of the bankruptcy case may not by law be included in or charged against the monies paid to Attorney prior to the Petition, and that such services described above and subject to this agreement which occur after the petition will be billed separately at the rate of $250.00 per hour. Postpetition charges for legal services may be paid only from monies which are not property of the bankruptcy estate and which are earned by the undersigned after the date on which the bankruptcy petition is filed.

The undersigned(s) further understands that the representation described in this agreement does not in any way guarantee or represent to the undersigned(s) that a discharge in bankruptcy will be obtained by the undersigned(s), or that all debts from which discharge can be sought will be included in any such discharge. The undersigned(s) fully agree to and understand his/her obligations to provide GERALD BAUER JR. with true and accurate copies of all documents necessary to confirm the assets and debts of the undersigned(s) and certain other information that is requested and required from the undersigned(s) in the separate Notices # 1 and # 2 which are attached and made part of this Bankruptcy Engagement Letter.

Please Note: The following documents, disclosures, and notices are required by legislation adopted by Congress in 2005, after intense lobbying by the credit industry. In our opinion, they are designed to scare and intimidate good people who have had bad things happen to them and need debt relief. The following required Notices are based on the false assumption that all people who consider bankruptcy relief are dishonest. Please rest assured — so long as you are honest and meet the requirements set out under the law, you are entitled to debt relief. We can guide you through all the requirements of filing for bankruptcy, so long as you provide us accurate and complete information.

NOTICE #1*

General Instructions:

1. All information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
2. All assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in 11 U.S.C. §506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value.
3. Current monthly income, the amounts specified in 11 U.S.C. §707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry.
4. Information that an assisted person provides during his or her case may be audited pursuant to this title, and failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

Instructions on Providing Information Required by Bankruptcy Law:

You are required to provide certain information to the court when you file bankruptcy. It is our obligation to make diligent inquiry of you so as to obtain information to include in your bankruptcy petition. We will be asking you for information concerning the following areas and possibly others. There will be additional information and possibly documents we will need you to bring back at your next appointment. We will give you a list of the documents we will need at your first appointment. We will need at least the following information to help you with your case:

Valuation of Assets: You need to value your assets based on the replacement value of the property as of the date your case is filed without deducting the costs of sale or marketing. If the property was acquired for personal, family, or household purposes, replacement value shall mean the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property (at the time value is determined). If you are uncertain of the value of your property, you should inform your attorney/paralegal and then contact a merchant who sells property of that kind and inquire as to the price that merchant would charge.

Determination of Current Monthly Income: In order to determine your income for purposes of your bankruptcy, you will need to provide some evidence about any source of income you or your spouse received in the preceding six months. Evidence of income may include pay stubs, statements from your employer, bank statements, or a letter from your employer. If you have other proof of income, please bring it to your next appointment. Also, if you or your spouse's income has changed in the last six months, you need to bring this to the attention of your attorney.

Types of Debt That Must Be Listed and Disclosed: You must list all your debts, including but not limited to (a) debts you don't believe you should owe; (b) debts that will not be discharged, such as student loans and child support; (c) debts that you intend to pay; (d) debts that you cosigned for someone else or that someone else cosigned for you; and (e) debts to family members.

Amount of Non-Priority Unsecured Debt: You will need to know the amount of your non-priority unsecured debt. This is debt that does not have any collateral securing it and is generally not in the nature of taxes, alimony, maintenance, or support. If you do not know the amount of your debt, you can get this information from your bills, court documents, or a credit report or from contacting your creditors directly.

Amount of Debt Owed to Secured and Priority Creditors: You will need to list all creditors who have any claim on any of your property as collateral for the debt. You will also need to list all creditors to whom you owe taxes, alimony, maintenance, child support, divorce decree obligations, etc. If you do not have this information, then you may be able to obtain it from your bills, a credit report, or court documents or from contacting your creditors directly.

Amount of Your Regular Monthly Expenses (Not Including Your Debts): You will need to be able to tell your attorney the amount you spend on your utilities, food, insurance premiums, expenses incurred to protect your family under the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (or other applicable federal law), medical expenses, 401k contributions, and loan payments, donations for charity, payments for the care of family members, and any school expenses for a dependent child. In addition, if you have any extraordinary expenses that are reasonable and necessary, please list these as well.

How To Determine What Address Should Be Used for Each Creditor: If a creditor is still communicating with you, we will need the address supplied by the creditor in at least 2 communications over the last 90 days. Do not use the address to which you send payments; rather, use the correspondence address. Keep all mailings from your creditor, so we can keep up with any changes in the creditor's address and prove, if necessary, that we used the appropriate addresses. *Notice mandated by 11 U.S.C. §§527(a)(2) and 527(c).

Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services from an Attorney:

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine. An attorney can help guide you through this intricate process, making it easier and less stressful for you.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you will be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and, much more rarely, by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts. It may not be in your best interest to reaffirm a debt.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which, if held, will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief. However, please be advised that in most cases, you will only be concerned with Chapter 7 and Chapter 13. Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice. *Notice mandated by 11 U.S.C. §527(b).

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.
